

KINDLING LIGHTS IN INDIA.

An Address Delivered By Mrs.
M. G. Thomson, of Paris,
Ky., At the District
C. W. B. M.
Convention In Mt. Sterling,
Ky., April 23, 1905.

The spirit of the age, the genius of the Universe, the pledge of the "New Time" is being fulfilled in the promise, "In the last days, I will pour out my spirit on all flesh." Some one has said that, "All creation is on the march; stars are reviving; the dead crust of the earth feels the necessity of change; the vegetable kingdom is moving on and upward; the animal kingdom, too, keep step, unconscious of the impelling cause, and as if he heard the music, draw, and afar off, joins the strange procession, and struggles onward and upward, marching with unseen banners to some great enterprise. The Nineteenth Century was filled with great and noble deeds, wrought by the hands of man; and the Twentieth Century, with its great discovery: woman, bids us make ready for a divine invasion. It is to our generation that God comes, pouring out his heart in tidal waves, making each man a sage, each hand-maiden a prophet of better days and higher things. No where do we see this more fully exemplified than in the work done by the C. W. B. M., and in no other country have we such varied and vast opportunities, as we have in far-away India; and we thank God that the time has come, when we can see the kindling lights of God's divine mercy in the Orient.

After working for many years in East, Dr. Geo. F. Pentecost said, "I have never had more than one conviction, India is the key to the foreign missionary problem of the East; it is the key-stone in the arch to the new Christian world; and to take it for Christ, will be to signalize the overthrow of heathenism."

Every C. W. B. M. woman knows something of our work in India, and it will only be necessary for me to give a few general facts to have you more fully realize that the light of God's love has been but kindled in the heart of the Orient.

We began our work in India in 1882, when 4 missionaries were sent across the waters, and by prayer and supplication to God 4 stations were first permanently established, Belapur, 1885; Deoghur, 1890; Bina, 1894; Mahoba, 1895, and since then we have established 4 new stations, Pandra Roads, opened in 1900, Calcutta, 1900; Rath, 1902; and Maudha in November, 1903, making a total of 8 missionary stations, with 25 missionaries, 1 assistant missionaries, 13 native helpers, 13 schools with 708 pupils, 4 orphanages with 27 orphans, 10 bungalows, 4 hospitals with about 1,500 patients, and upwards of 150 Zenanas or homes open to us.

The work in Calcutta is Evangelistic. The gospel unto all the world is the message of authority to our missionaries, and then our aim in life is to please Christ, and to bring souls into his service. To further this aim regular church services are held, with Sunday Schools, Christian Endeavor and Prayer Meetings.

Another important work is the village work. By wayside wells, and halting places, in the fields, when the people thresh out their grain, in front of the village Gods, on the steps of their Temples; to the young, and to the old, to the rich and poor, to high and low, alike, the message of salvation through a crucified and risen Saviour is preached by the anointed of God. We can never estimate the value of the Orphanage work done by our missionaries in India; and eternity alone will bring them their reward; for they have the blessed assurance, "In that they have done it for the least of these the little ones, they have done it for the Master."

We must not fail to mention the light that emanates from the Zenana or home work.

A high caste Indian not many years ago became interested in some needle work done by one of our missionaries, and requested this godly woman to go into his Indian home and teach an Indian woman how to sew. This was God's opportunity, for with every stitch was interwoven the story of the blessed Gospel, and to-day our Woman Missionaries have no more important work in India than their Zenana work. In this land, it is only in the home, that a woman can be reached, as she is never permitted to appear in public. Even in benighted India the mother is the angel-spirit of the home. She trains and directs her children, while the father rules not one home but many, not in one heart, but in many hearts. When we reach motherhood in India, we reach childhood. When we win the children for Christ, we shall win the Orient. God grant that Zenana work may continue in India, till every mother's heart is made happy and glad in the light of the Gospel of peace.

But let us pause upon the threshold of this work, for we are still upon the threshold. With Evangelistic, village, medical, school, orphanage, and Zenana work, and 25 faithful missionaries to kindle the lights of divine instruction in India—with all these—are we satisfied?

India contains one-sixth of the entire human race or 280 millions of people, and when we compare our work with what is yet to be done, we still hear the Macedonian call, "Come over and help us," and we may yet sing with hearts full of grief:

"There's a call still comes ringing o'er the restless waves;
There are souls to rescue, there are souls to save."

This is especially true in the great centers of India; there are millions in these great cities who have never even seen a missionary, millions who know nothing of the Gospel of Love. The great capital of India, Calcutta, is the seat of the University of Calcutta with 20,000 students. It is estimated that these college students, educated men, who know not Christ, influence yearly more than 100 millions of people. The city is full of temples and shrines, many of which contain the most horrible and debased symbols of Hindu divinities. The C. W. B. M. fully realized that Calcutta was a rich field awaiting capable laborers, and they established a Bible Lectureship in this great city in 1900, sending their own brother and sister Forest to take charge of this important work. These faithful servants of God remained all March 28, 1903, when Mrs. Forest's health compelled them to seek their home climate. They left behind their hearts' best love, buried in a little grave, made sacred by the sacrifices of a Christian father and mother. During Bro. Forest's ministry in Calcutta we had no building of our own, but he secured the use of the Y. M. C. A. College for his meetings. Since that time our sisterhood have raised money to build the Burgess Memorial in Calcutta. The work of saving souls is still in its infancy in this great city. It is estimated that possibly 2,000 out of the great body of 30,000 students in this great metropolis are Christians. A vision of opportunity is opened before us, but since the return of brother and sister Forest our work has no leader, and it seems to me that Bro. Forest is right when he says, "No sadder page of our missionary history has ever been written." Brother and sister Lockhart are under appointment to take up this work after another year, but during the interim let us remember that the groans of the suffering, and the cries of the dying are going up to Heaven from that populous city. This mass of people who know not the sorrow of mankind are a mighty appeal to the church that sends the plea of the simple Gospel of Christ; for to win this mighty host would be to send them as light-bearers to the countless millions of their own fellow-countrymen.

Let our prayers ascend to God for Calcutta, and for all the kindling lights in India; may they become beacon-lights to guide the missionary hosts of the C. W. B. M. on to victory for the Lord; may the glad day hasten when the light of the Gospel of Christ will illuminate the darkest corners of India, and when we shall encamp and hang out the banners of victory to Him who liveth in Eternity, before whom a thousand years are but as a day, and one day as a thousand years.

AN OLD REBEL SOLDIER.

I know an old broken-down rebel.
A well-worn old garment of strife,
Scattered by the falls of the Yankees
And worn with the battle of life.
When the South got its trouble he lived here,
And he tramped and he fit and he bled;
All outdoor the war he was doing his best,
But he ain't no back-number Rebel.

He was never no holiday soldier,
And he ain't with a darn on parade;
Tho' he might get in home in the livelong
And show up pretty well on a raid.
But he can't tell a lie for to save him,
'Twas the nervous exiles he done;
How he slaughtered the Yanks by the thousands,
And whenever they see him they run.

He don't know the U. C. V. affairs—
He they Major or Brigadier—
He can't understand these here spouses,
And the uniforms look mighty queer.
But you ask him about the 'old-timers',
And you bet he kin git it down exact;
For he'll tell you some things that'll make you
Just natchally war he was.

He will tell of the march and the muster,
Of his right all through the long night,
When the grim hosts were lying in an armor
That, next morning, were marshaled for fight.

He will tell how the gray lines moved onward
Through the battle's perilous range;
How the drum rattled the feet of the army,
And the bugle rang out for the charge.
And pining with cold and with hunger,
And weary and crippled and sore,
He was true to the torn flag he followed,
And the ragged old jacket he wore.
But he ain't no holiday soldier,
And he don't know the tricks of the trade;
He serves on the staff of a general,
And he ain't with a d—n on parade!

Cleaned Out.

When a deep cellar becomes filled with heavy, poisonous air, it is never safe to go into it until it has been cleaned out. When your body has been poisoned with the foul residues of undigested food, it is just as necessary to clean it out. To do this pleasantly and safely take Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It is a pure, scientific preparation which has no equal in the cure of constipation, headache, biliousness and stomach trouble. Sold by W. S. Lloyd at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

A Letter From C. G. Glover,
Shawnee, O. T.

If we should ask permission to print this letter Charlie Glover would say no, but he is a long ways from home, and since we do not know of any modern gun that would carry the distance, we have taken the liberty to publish it. It was written May 1st, and is as follows:

"Mr. J. W. HEDDEN,
"MT. STERLING, KY.

"DEAR SIR: Well, this is a fine country out here and I am well pleased. My family live in Oklahoma City. When I first came out here last March a year ago I took a position as head book-keeper for the same firm in Oklahoma City. They transferred me in September to their house here as their cashier and head book-keeper. They have five large wholesale houses, with a capital of over five hundred thousand dollars.

Assistant Postmaster at Louisville
Must Resign From State Central Committee and Civil Service Rules Must be Enforced.

Politics and the Civil Service are in conflict in the Louisville, Ky., post-office. Postmaster General Cortelyou instructed the postmaster at that place to take the following action:

"Inform William A. Evans that it is the opinion of the department that if he desires to retain his position as Assistant Postmaster he should retire from membership on the Republican State Central Committee of Kentucky. Bring to the attention of the classified employees of your office civil service regulations relative to activity in politics, and require such employees to comply strictly with the spirit of the regulations in question."

This action is based on the report received by Cortelyou from the Civil Service Commission giving the results of their investigation of conditions in the Louisville post-office.

Clean House Today.

Don't wait till tomorrow, but clean house today, with Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Of course we mean your house of flesh and bone—your body. This is the best house you own, and should get the most care. Yet most people neglect it in a dreadful manner. As a result, stomach, liver, and bowels soon get out of order, and cause great pain, distress, and dangerous internal diseases. The only safe, sure cure, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It clears out all causes of sickness, cures constipation and indigestion, cleans house, and makes you well. Try it. Sold by W. S. Lloyd at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

A Jolly Fishing Party.

A number of Mt. Sterling fishermen headed by Messrs. Clay Cooper and Jas. Hazelrigg passed through town Saturday on their way home from a two weeks' trip to the Cumberland river. They camped about five miles below Williamsburg, in Whitley county, and had a fine time. From the sample talk that they made on our streets, they will fill Mt. Sterling so full of "big fish talk" that if Jonah were to go up there and start to telling his little story, the natives would say: "O, come off, old man! You go get Clay Cooper to tell you what he did up on Cumberland, and then raise him one if you can."—Sun-Sentinel, Winchester.

We grow two fine crops of potatoes a year here and find a ready market for them as soon as we ready, which is about the first of middle of July. Wish you and Judge McKee and L. T. Let Everybody Work

And the world would be more happy and contented. Just consider how much pain and trouble results in your body, when your liver or stomach stop working. Happily, you can soon set them to work again, cure your pains, and restore yourself to health and contentment, with Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Try it. Sold by W. S. NOT A CANDIDATE.

Last week the report was that Mr. L. B. Cockrell, of Clark county, would be a candidate for State Senator. Mr. Cockrell had placed himself in position to consider the matter and after consulting with his friends decided to leave the race between Messrs Ecton and Thompson.

CAN BE TRUSTED.

If Judge Paynter has been a prosperous business man, an acceptable Congressman, an honored and appreciative Judge of the Court of Appeals. A worthy and exemplary citizen and Christian gentleman, all of which he has to his credit, he can be trusted with the duties of a U. S. Senator, to which office he aspires.

ON THE STUMP.

Senator Blackburn in a speech at Owingsville Monday continued in his characteristic way of talking. He expressed himself as sanguine in the belief that he would be returned to the Senate, and went after what he calls the machine (organized opposition) with a "monogription energy." The Senator, federal incumbent of thirty years, did not fill the busy "City on the Hill" with immoderate enthusiasm, possibly from the fact the people want a man who has drawn much substance from the Government to be a man of doings. Visionary machine discussion does not satisfy the public. A recounting of helpful deeds is far better.

What good things have you done during these many office terms? Say, Joseph, what do you propose to do?

FOR PAYNTER.

W. A. Young, of Morehead, a candidate for the Legislature in the counties of Rowan and Bath, made a telling speech at Owingsville Monday, and while Blackburn said he was hopeful Mr. Young would favor his return to the Senate, Mr. Young announced that he would advocate the election of Judge Paynter as U. S. Senator.

Commencement.

The Annual Commencement Exercises of the Public School will be held this year on Friday night, June 9th, at the Court House. This year's class is the first to graduate, having completed a four years' course in the High School, one year's study having been added to the course some time ago, making the course in the High School four years, where formerly it was three.

The principle feature of the Commencement Exercises will be an address by Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, on the Duties and Responsibilities of Citizenship. Our people are to be congratulated upon this opportunity to hear such a distinguished speaker.

The following persons are to be the sweet graduates:

Misses Anne Laura Sharp, Mary A. Lockridge, Catherine G. Carmody, Mabel C. Reis, Deborah V. Coyle, Elizabeth B. Drake, Anne D. Simral, Alice A. Apperson; Messrs. Edmund D. Wells, William Enoch, John P. Carmody, Robert H. Turner, John O. Tyler.

These pupils have the distinction of being the first to complete the four years high school course in Mt. Sterling High School.

The following will receive certificates for work satisfactorily performed. Owing to untoward circumstances, they have completed only part of the last year's course: Misses Alice Gutrie, Rosalind Rogers, Louise Morris.

Miss Anne Laura Sharp is First Honor pupil and Miss Mary A. Lockridge, Second Honor pupil; Honorable Mention, Miss Catharine Carmody, and Mr. Edmund Wells will be Class Orator.

Prof. Gunn is preparing a most interesting program, and the class personnel above mentioned will have leading parts. In addition a string band will add to the pleasure of the occasion.

JUDGE THOMAS H. PAYNTER.

It has been our effort to find something of discredit to Judge Paynter in his life of public service. We have not found it. He is a valuable public man and is so regarded by all people, irrespective of party affiliation, and even Senator Blackburn finds words of praise for him. Such a man universally favored by all people, including a raging opponent, is worthy the honors he seeks.

WHOM?

The time is approaching when the people are wanting to know whom the State Representatives and Senators will favor for United States Senator. The Advocate has a choice of the men mentioned for this position and would favor the election of Judge Thomas H. Paynter, of the Court of Appeals. We would favor Judge Paynter first for his ability to represent the people, his close study as a lawyer and Judge, his powers of discrimination, his popularity among the people. His freedom from partisan methods has endeared him to his people and fits him for a just representative. While Judge Paynter has always been true to Democratic principles, never at any time has his conduct compromised his dignity, and at all times he has shown signs of the great man and true statesman that he is. An active man, vigorous in mind and body, trained to think, conclude and bring to pass, he would make a Senator of whom Kentuckians would have reason to be proud.—Mt. Sterling Advocate, January 4, 1905.

The News always tells whom it is for. We have no patience with a number of our more or less esteemed contemporaries who "lay dead" in the early stages of a campaign, waiting to see who the winner will be before declaring their preference. For the office of United States Senator from Kentucky, the success Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, the news is for Judge Paynter against the field, as at present made up.

Judge Paynter is one of the cleanest and ablest of our public men and would make a splendid record as a Senator. Kentucky needs to retain some of her lost prestige in that great body, and in order to do so men of intellect and character and force should be sent there. Judge Paynter has proven to be one of the ablest judges the state ever had. He is a strong, quiet, hard working man; a leading lawyer and a profound and just judge. We doubt if the judiciary committee of the Senate has a better lawyer on the membership than Paynter.—Logan County News, March 31, 1905.

HIS POLITICAL CAREER.

Judge Paynter has had an unusual political career, never suffering defeat for public office. His first office was as County Attorney of his home county in 1867, when first admitted to the bar for the practice of his profession. He held the office one year by appointment and four years by election. He was made the Democratic nominee for Congress from the Ninth Congressional District in 1888, and was elected for two years and re-elected in 1890 and 1892. His last term was interrupted by nomination and election in 1894 as Judge of the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Appellate District. For that office his opponent was the late Gov. Goebel, and was warmly contested. The race terminated pleasantly and Judge Paynter and Gov. Goebel continued close personal and political friends until the death of the latter. The people of his district endorsed his service of eight years on the bench by a largely increased majority. Since his re-election the General Assembly has added the counties of Bath and Elliott to the Sixth district, increasing the Democratic majority to above 5,000.

Judge Paynter has occupied a seat upon the bench of the Court of Appeals during the most critical times in the history of the State, and has handed down opinions in many cases of vital interest to its welfare. Within a few months after he went upon the bench he delivered a dissenting opinion in the noted bank tax cases, which the court several years later, reversing itself, adopted and which the United States Supreme Court upheld, and which is now the law.—Courier-Journal, Louisville, March 18, 1905.

Judge Thomas H. Paynter, of the Court of Appeals, has formally announced for the United States Senate against Joe Blackburn. Of course this end of the State, being largely included in his Appellate district, will be solidly for him, and he only needs to run even with Blackburn elsewhere to win. This, his friends think, he will certainly do.—Williamstown Courier, March 23, 1905.

Base-Ball.

On Monday afternoon at Riddell's Park the Mt. Sterling High School team defeated Winchester Athletic Club in what was the most interesting game of the season. Errors were rife on both sides. It seemed that the visitors would be easy winners until the seventh inning when Carmody's and Hedden's home runs started a battling streak which did not stop until six runs had been scored to the credit of High School. The game resulted with the score 10 to 6 in favor of the home team.

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

IN WOLFE COUNTY.

The writer left home on Thursday morning for Wolfe Circuit Court.

The new depot at Torrent will soon be completed. Workmen are enlarging the yard between depot and tunnel.

El Park Hotel will be conducted by Clarence Bush and Floyd Day. They take charge on May 15th. Mr. Bush has been at Torrent for about 14 years in charge of the store, and of the hotel except during tourist season. We expect to hear favorable reports concerning this attractive resort. (Further notice later).

We rode horseback to Campton, 10 miles. This is the safest and quickest way for the trip, i. e., a traveler accustomed to horseback will not regret so going. If the reputation of a county or county officials depends upon the condition of the roads we extend our sympathy to his excellency, the County Judge, and others associated with him. Travel by conveyance is dangerous in many places. We do not wish to be considered as complaining or growling when we call attention to the condition of roads—whether dirt roads in the mountains or pikes in Montgomery and Bath counties. We are making friendly suggestions; we are interested in the welfare of the counties and the officials. If the appropriations for pikes, economically and wisely expended, are not sufficient to provide good roads, let there be some readjustment, extra appropriation, additional supervision, or something to remedy the serious defects. In regard to the mud roads in various counties we are convinced that there needs to be more work—systematic, thoughtful work—not pitching a few bushes and a little dirt in a sink that has no drainage, while tons of rock are near by it not actually pitched out of the roadbed. The road from Torrent will, in some places in winter and early spring, be bad however much work (less than piking) be put on it. Much of the road is now in fine condition, smooth and safe; but we do not see any excuse for some of those dangerous places. We have often thought that the teamsters who regularly haul over these roads in several counties could well afford (from the money standpoint) to club together and see that loose rock scattered for miles or lying around these dangerous places re-hauled and pitched into the holes and broken over the surface, also that occasionally a few minutes are spent in drainage. Protection of self and teams and wagons, more rapid transit (which means less expense) urge this remedy.

We got to Campton. The Combs House was so crowded that we were lodged with Mr. Drushel, cashier of the bank. His wife was visiting in Cincinnati.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Riddell was in the chair and J. K. Roberts was having his last experience as Commonwealth's Attorney, as he is to be succeeded by J. P. Adams, his Republican contestant. The case against Mr. Friesela for killing the little boy Wright was transferred to Estill county. Mat Sloan received a 3-year term in penitentiary for shooting and wounding "Tricksy" Tom Sharp. Brewer was acquitted for shooting at two men. Z. T. Young, of Paintsville; Finley Fogg, Henry M. Cox, candidate for Legislature, and Sam Wheeler, Democratic Senatorial nominee, of Morgan, were there. W. S. Tutt, County Clerk, has been confined at home for nearly three weeks with rheumatism.

Lon Hovermale, editor of the Campton Courier, was as handsome and talkative as ever. Perhaps you have heard him say something about the Christian Church having neither politics nor religion. Did not ask him if he was a member.

There are evidences of growth in the town. The striking of oil wells continues, and two gas wells have come in. We left at 4 p. m. on Friday. At Garrett & Loveland's store at Pine Hill we heard of Judge Parker's instructions to the jury in the Hargis case, and at once supposed that an acquittal would be the verdict, as the jury has to follow instructions. Instead of evidence. We are not versed in technicalities of law—and some other things—but presume the Judge understands the situation.

The return trip, with varied landscape, the freshness of foliage, star light, refreshing sleep at El Park, the early chorus of sweet voiced birds hymning the Creator's praise, all combined to form a pleasing experience in the life of a country editor who goes on the road. We spent the day in Lexington.

Mr. M. E. Wilson and wife are here and have control of the Star Restaurant. A hearty welcome will be extended to them. They have proved themselves thoroughly acquainted with their business and have returned to give their best services to this business.

THE MAN WITH $10

Can get a better suit here than any place in the world and here is a reason: We fully understand that hundreds of men feel like that "ten" is enough. We know there are a great many of $10-suit buyers, and that they want the same style and wear as the man who pays a longer price. The trade on $10-suits is a great factor in the volume of business.

We are showing fifty different patterns in $10 Suits in six separate and distinct styles, made with big broad shoulders, hair cloth fronts, long and medium cut sacks, large or small hip trousers, with belt strap and straps on side to give snug fit when wearing a belt. Some of these suits have turn-up trousers, some have not. We show plain blues, plain browns, plain greys, plain blacks, fancy scotches in plaids, stripes and invisible plaids to fit any man

If you only want to spend $10 for a suit, come here; you will notice the great resemblance our $10 suits bear the better grades. No trouble to show you, and your money back if purchase is not satisfactory.

What is Poultry?

There are six principal classes of poultry—namely: Chickens, turkeys, geese, ducks, guineas, and pigeons. They form the sources of three kinds of products—feathers, meat, and eggs. The first named class supplies nine-tenths of the poultry products of the country. The next three classes—turkeys, geese, and ducks—are raised almost wholly for their flesh, which is highly prized, especially during the holiday season.

The guinea fowl forms an unimportant group. So far as the commercial products are concerned they have neither popularity nor merit. However, when thrown with another stock of poultry they render valuable service as sentinels. The guinea is alert and noisy—always ready to give timely alarm of approaching danger so that other fowls may seek shelter.

The pigeon family is small, though by no means unimportant, class. The highly forced young pigeon, popularly known as the "squab," finds much favor with certain classes of people. The popularity of the "squab" is likely to endure, for its flesh is tender, nutritious, and wholesome.

Chickens have been divided into three groups, each comprising many breeds. These groups are: First—The Mediterranean, egg producers and nonsitters, represented by the Brown, Buff, and White Leghorns. Second—The American, general or dual purpose, represented by the White, Buff, and Banded Plymouth Rocks, the Wyandottes, and the Rhode Island Reds. Third—The Asiatic, meat producers, represented by the Light and Dark Brahmas, the Cochins, and the Langshans.

The selection of the breed is important, but the maintenance of the purity, health and vigor of that breed is vastly more important. If pure breeds possess merit over the scrub, the truth of which no well informed person will undertake to controvert, it would seem to be desirable that the identity of the breed should be maintained. Therefore, the selection of the breed must be followed by proper methods in handling. Otherwise the good results sought through the selection of thoroughbred fowls will hardly be realized.—Farm Sentinel.

Theodore Hallam Succumbs to Inflammation of The Brain at Covington.

Theodore F. Hallam, attorney and politician, died May 3 at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Covington.

Mr. Hallam had gone to the hospital for an operation to cut out a big tumor that recently formed in his neck, but inflammation of the brain developed and he became so weak that all idea of an operation had to be abandoned.

Mr. Hallam was one of the most brilliant men in the State and as a stump speaker had few equals. He was one of the leaders of the opposition to the late Wm. Goebel in his celebrated race for governor against W. S. Taylor and his speeches during that stirring period made him one of the most conspicuous figures in the stormy campaign.

A Vexed Problem.

The editor of the Morehead Mountaineer feelingly remarks: "Along with other public problems at this time of the year the annual problem of preserving peace and quiet in a community where half of the people want to make garden and the other half want to keep chickens."

The Need of Great Men and Women.

We know that in all nations the level of civilization is always parallel with the level of womanhood; that no matter how intelligent and free and strong American men are, if they had Hottentot wives or even Turkish wives, they would not have as fine children. The development of the woman is necessary to the birth of strong brains.

At present, half of our citizens, the mothers of the country, the people who do more to build brains than any body else, occupy their minds all their lives long with their own private affairs. They do not spend time thinking and caring about large private affairs. They do not participate in matters of public interest, and they can neither bear or rear as broad minded, as public-spirited, as able children as if they were able themselves. It takes strong, wise, able women to make strong, wise, able men.

Now, if women have the right of suffrage and think about public affairs, feel the responsibility of them, give their minds to them, turn their consciences on them, it will give us a breed of people better able to take the large place of which I have spoken, having the larger honesty, not the small man-to-man honesty, but the public honesty that is so bitterly needed everywhere and for lack of which Russia is going to piece.

The right of suffrage does not interfere with wifehood or motherhood or domesticity. That is proved by the experience in the States that have it.

Facts and Observations

Hears Senator Blackburn and Will Young Speak at Owensville.

Circuit Court and County Court in Bath turned our attention on Monday. At the Mt. Sterling depot we learned that Senator J. C. Blackburn was en route to Owensville to speak. He was accompanied by Chas. M. Lewis, of Shelbyville, and Alonzo Walker, of Louisville, short-hand reporter, friends of the Senator. Our train was a few minutes late. From Ewington we skipped along lively, covering miles in 63 and 65 seconds. The day was ideal for a drive over a fine pile to Owensville. The Senatorial party occupied one carriage while the writer alone occupied an apartment in a nice rig. Until 10 o'clock we attended to business.

The Court-room in Bath's Temple of Justice is attractive, evincing a spirit of progress and county pride (thanks to Judge Dancyer and his colleagues). Seated in an easy, leather upholstered chair, with tablet resting on a nicely varnished hardwood table, with other surroundings in keeping with a refined taste, we were ready to take notes on Senator Blackburn's speech. This was an unexpected (when we left home) pleasure. H. B. Kinsolving, of Mt. Sterling, introduced the distinguished Kentuckian. Soon after the orator of the day began, we looked around and seeing the aged and rather infirm J. S. Hart, a lawyer who has seen long service) sitting on the top of a table, we were not content to occupy our comfortable seat, so gave place to him while we sat on the floor of the jury box, and half-facing the speaker noted some of his utterances. We were content thus to sit at the feet of one who had for 30 years been in public life in the Nation's capital, had fought Democracy's fiercest battles for 50 years, enjoyed its honors and was now using its utmost energies to "bust the machine," "spurning their support," referring to "the self-constituted machine enthroned in the Capitol Square at Frankfort"—our Chief Executive and his associates.

The court-room was crowded, standing room being filled in 15 minutes. We received close attention. We cannot give full speech but will convey some of his thoughts: I come to preach same Democracy of 7 years ago. In our country, newspaper papers are seeking to compass my defeat by saying I will turn Republican if I am defeated. Such utterances fall from lips of an idiot, or a man who thinks I am an idiot, or a man who charges me with murder and arson—some may believe it—but I will not bolt a Democratic nominee. I will battle for Democracy against every man, woman and child. I will come at the call of my Legislature and advocate cause of any Democratic nominee whether or not he supports me for the Senate. Referring to Rowan-Bath race he said: "I know I got a vote if Walter Sharp goes to the Legislature. I am for my friends—the better the fight the closer I stick. I would be the basest of ingrates if I did not assist him, remembering how he stood with me during troubles of the Taylor administration." In speaking of the State administration (his opponents) he said: "It was a combination as foul as it was unnatural, and that in January, 1903, a representative of the executive came to tend to their support on condition I leave them alone and keep my hands out of Kentucky politics. I answered I scorned their support on such conditions." He referred to the little 2x6 papers who call on him to give the name of the messenger. "If any one of gang (administration) will deny it, I will give the name of the messenger and furnish documentary proof. I am not getting a fair deal, a square fight. The patronage of the executive is being used in trade and dice." He referred to his opponent, Judge Paynter, in the most courteous and praiseworthy manner and regretted his absence (did not tell the audience that official duties kept Judge Paynter away, but thought that Judge Paynter had done little in the Kehoe Congressional race which resulted in Republican success. "If he had any hand in campaign I did not hear of it."

In speaking of Judge A. W. Young as successor to Judge Paynter on Appellate Bench he said that Judge Young would find the way to the chair occupied by the Pope in Rome shorter than that to the Appellate Bench if the occupancy depended upon Judge Paynter winning the Senatorship.

He said no one man was indispensable to the State, and that the Democratic party had done for 10,000 fold for what I had done. "My personal interest is not the thing at stake. I plead the cause of my State against a few small men who seek to thwart the will of the people." He said Gov. Beckham declined his request to make the race for Senator and said he (Beckham) would find a man. He predicted the defeat of the Democratic party in 1907 if the administration party at Frankfort dictates the selection of the next State ticket. He then said that if Judge Paynter

Again referring to the legislative candidates—Day, Shu and Young—and his wish for their support, he promised to use his effort to secure election of Democratic nominees. He left once to reach the train. When the applause subsided A. He viewed the political history of Walter Sharp as a boisterous since 1840 and said Sharp was not a Democrat. He failed to hear his closing sentences, and the speech of Chas. CALIFORNIA

Do you want to live where the climate is mild the year round—where labor is never oppressed by stress of weather, and where animal vitality is never lost by mere conflict with cold?

Do you want to live in a region where the resources are more varied than in any other equal area in the world, where the division of great ranches affords a fine opportunity to get a small farm that will assure you a competence?

Do you want to live where, with a minimum of labor, you can grow profitable crops of grapes and small fruit, oranges, lemons, olives, prunes and almonds, alfalfa and grain, where crops are sure, business is good and capital easily finds profitable investment?

Then go to California, where both health and opportunity await your coming.

The Chicago, Union Pacific and North-Western Line

is the most direct route to the Pacific Coast, and there are two fast through trains daily via this line, over the famous double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri River. One-way Colonist tickets are on sale daily, March 1 to May 15, at the rate of $33.00 from Chicago, with correspondingly low rates from all points, give you an unusual chance to make the trip.

These tickets are good on daily and personally conducted excursions, on which a double berth in a Pullman tourist sleeping car from Chicago costs only $7.00. Round-trip tickets are always on sale from all points at reduced rates via the

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax the Women of Mt. Sterling the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back. And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys.

Here is a woman who endorses this claim: Mrs. Stephen Bales, of 353 North Upper street, Lexington, says: "Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills it was difficult for me to do the most trivial housework. My back pained excruciatingly. I had no energy and added to the backache, twinges of pain shot to the shoulders and cords of my neck. The treatment cured, and up to date there has been no recurrence."

Plenty more proof like this from Mt. Sterling people. Call at F. C. Duerson's drug store and ask what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Watch for It.

It will pay you to watch for the very first symptoms of indigestion or liver trouble and to prevent the trouble from gaining headway, by quickly taking Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Nothing is more weakening to the system than chronic dyspepsia, and all its complications. Nothing will cure it so quickly, pleasantly and surely as Syrup Pepsin. Sold by W. S. Lloyd at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails. 45 5

The Real Thing.

Charles Hatfield, a "rainmaker," who has been working since December 15 last to produce eighteen inches of rain for Southern California by May 1, on a pledge of a number of Los Angeles merchants to pay him $1,000 if he succeeded, has completed his demonstration, and has been paid a large proportion of the sum promised. The remainder of the amount guaranteed him will be paid shortly, it is said. The fall of rain in Los Angeles during the season ending May 1 has been 18.96 inches, which far exceeds the fall of last season, and is above the normal annual precipitation for this section. Hatfield established his "rainmaking" plant in Altadena, in the foothills of the mountains, some twenty miles from Los Angeles, on December 15, and the amount of rainfall from that date in the immediate locality of his plant has been 26.49 inches. Hatfield's method is a generation of gas and its discharge into the atmosphere from a chimney, which has the result, he claims, of attracting forces of nature which compel moisture to form and be precipitated in the shape of rain.

New Fad For Harvard.

Harvard has a new fad in the sporting line, no less than playing marbles "for keeps." It is all the rage among the staid and dignified seniors, who are now discussing merits of agates, glassies and meigies with the same seriousness and earnest devotion that they will have to give their theses later on in order to capture the bachelor-or-arts degree.

Two teams have been formed, and match games are scheduled every warm day between the Holyworth seniors and the Stoughton seniors for the championship.

Wanted.

To buy a farm, good soil and improvements, near churches and that will cost not exceeding $5,000. Call or address Advocate office, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Gigantic Idol In Japan.

Two miles from Kamakura, and about twenty from Yokohama, in Japan, on a terrace near the temple, sits the most gigantic idol in the world. It is the brazen image of a deity, and dates from the reign of Emperor Sionmu, who died A. D. 748. The dimensions of this idol are colossal. Its height, from the base of the lotus flower upon which it sits to the top of its head, is sixty-three and one-half feet. The face is sixteen feet in length and nine and one-half feet wide; the eyes are three feet nine inches from corner to corner; the eyebrows five and one-half feet, and the ears are eight and one-half feet. The chest is twenty feet in depth, and the middle finger is exactly five feet long.

A little life may be sacrificed to a sudden attack of croup, if you don't have Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand for the emergency. 42 5 $10,000 Short Is Report As to Young Cashier Of Gratz Bank.

Albert C. Rice, aged 22, cashier of the Deposit Bank of Gratz, Owen county, the youngest cashier in Kentucky is reported ten thousand dollars short.

He is said to have admitted the shortage and promised to make good in some way. His step-father, T. O. Meredith, of Burgin, says the bank directors were too careless and Albert was too young and spent money too freely.

CATARHAL TROUBLES PREVALENT

Spring Months Cause Catarrh—Breathe Hyomei, and be Cured.

Catarrhal troubles are more common at this season than at any other time of the year. The sudden changes that come during the spring months are productive of many cases of catarrh that without proper treatment will become chronic.

The pleasantest, most convenient, and only scientific method for the treatment and cure of catarrh, is Hyomei. Simply put twenty drops in the little pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, and then breathe it for three minutes four times a day.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but one dollar, and as the inhaler will last a lifetime and there is sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment, it is the most economical catarrhal remedy known. Extra bottles can be procured for fifty cents. Ask W. S. Lloyd to show you the strong guarantee under which he sells Hyomei. [A26M10]

Facts About Hens and Eggs.

Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture says that the hens of the United States lay 1,666,000,000 dozens of eggs a year. These eggs would pay the interest on the national debt.

Poultry and eggs comprise 16.3 per cent of the total animal products of the United States.

Exclusive of the eggs and poultry used by owners of hens, eggs sold annually bring $225,000,000 to poultry raisers. Poultry sold annually amounts to $150,000,000.

Poultry husbandry is regularly taught in ten agricultural colleges. In 1904 the United States imported 22,000,000 cases (six dozen to the case) of eggs.

The Canadian government encourages the breeding of poultry by government appropriation, pays the expenses of breeders and stock to American shows and doubles, in money and honors, every prize won in the United States by Canadian fowls.

NEW MOVE FOR POWERS.

Attorney Asks That His Case be Taken to U. S. Court.

A surprise was sprung in the Caleb Powers case at Georgetown when the matter came up of fixing a date for his trial. The surprise was in the nature of a petition signed by Frank S. Black, ex-Governor of New York, and Richard Yates, ex-Governor of Illinois, as his attorneys, asking the removal of his case to the United States Court on the ground that he can not secure in Kentucky the rights and equal protection of the laws that are his as a citizen of the United States under the Constitution and laws.

CLAIMS PARDON LEGAL.

The petition also maintains that the pardon granted Powers by Taylor was legal and is effective and that at the time it was issued Taylor had been recognized as Governor of Kentucky by the President, Attorney General and Postmaster General. It is set forth that at the time both the Republicans and Democrats were trying to hold the State Government at Frankfort, mail was received at Frankfort addressed "Governor of Kentucky," and the Postmaster at Frankfort being in a quandary as to whom to deliver it to appealed to Washington. The Kentucky situation was considered at a Cabinet meeting at which President McKinley was present and it was decided that Taylor was then the Governor of Kentucky and the mail was ordered delivered to him.

TRIALS REVIEWED.

The trials of Powers, charged with the murder of Governor Goebel, are reviewed, the first resulting in a life sentence, the second a life sentence and the third the death penalty, new trials being granted by the Court of Appeals in each instance, two of which have been held and the third pending; that the certificate of pardon was presented in each instance as a bar and complete defense, but its admission was refused.

Exceptions are taken to the make-up of the juries in the summoning of Goebel Democrats in each instance, and it is set forth that the feeling engendered by the Goebel-Taylor case has been intensified to an extent to have an effect on another jury in Scott county.

"Your petitioner further respectfully represents that the Sheriff of Scott county, to whom is assigned the duty of selecting all jurors whose names are not drawn from the jury wheel, is a Goebel Democrat, as are also the Deputy Sheriffs of said county.

"Your petitioner therefore prays this honorable Court that the said indictment and the prosecution pending thereunder in this honorable court against your petitioner be removed into the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Kentucky for trial at the next ensuing term of said Circuit Court, and your petitioner will ever pray."

Besides the names of Black and Yates attached to the petition, are those of J. C. Sims, R. D. Hill, R. C. Kinkead and W. Clay Howard, as Powers' attorneys.

Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin moved the Court to set a date for a special term to try the case and objected to the petition to remove it to the United States Court. Judge Stout set July 10 as the date for the beginning of the special term. Powers will remain in Georgetown.

Judge Stout, at the special term, will decide whether or not he will admit the petition. Meanwhile the case will be docketed in the United States Court of Eastern Kentucky, which convenes Monday at London, which court will determine its jurisdiction on removal.

Wise Hen Rebukes Deceit.

Once upon a time (quite recently) a hen went upon a strike and refused to lay. Other hens followed her example and the scarcity of hen fruit which resulted caused eggs to retail for something like 50 cents per dozen. In other words, strictly fresh eggs laid by scab hens were worth about 5 cents each in the shell. Even cold storage eggs, which were deadly explosive and had to be handled with care, brought 30 cents.

The people got together and remonstrated with the hens, but it did no good. Finally an arbitration committee waited on the hens and tried to persuade them to go back to work. The arbitration committee pointed out that only the rich could afford to eat eggs, but the hens refused to work. The arbitration committee then told the hens that if they persisted in the strike they would bring race suicide on themselves.

Then a wise old hen arose and spoke as follows:

"In the spring when we hens wish to set the people give us porcelain doorknobs to sit on. If porcelain doorknobs are as good as eggs to sit on they ought to be as good to eat as eggs. Tell the people to eat porcelain doorknobs."

The arbitration committee could not answer this argument and departed in tears.
